Bilcare Research Awarded:
Best Global Pharmaceutical Blister Packaging Solutions Provider 2019

Bilcare Research has been awarded Best Global Pharmaceutical Blister Packaging Solutions Provider 2019 by the Global Health and Pharma (GHP) network in this year's Manufacturing and Packaging Awards. Bilcare Research was selected for this award through a combination of votes from GHP respected industry partners and their detailed research panel. Winners were selected for their expertise within a given field, dedication to customer service and client satisfaction with an ongoing commitment to excellence and innovation.

"We are extremely honoured to receive this award," stated Andreas Pfefferle, Business Unit Head Global Pharma Packaging Innovations for Bilcare Research. "Truly the industry accolades must go to the entire Bilcare team for their dedication to research and innovation, outstanding customer service and quality manufacturing. Due to their hard work behind the scenes, our pharmaceutical customers can successfully optimize their blister packaging to deliver health improving, and oftentimes life-saving, products to patients."
